

Learn about National Grid's Graduate Development Program

National Grid is a diverse, inclusive organization where you will be valued for your contributions.

Program benefits

- ◆ Real work experience in a corporate environment
- ◆ Intensive leadership training
- ◆ Developmental opportunities
- ◆ Networking events
- ◆ Working in various business functions

Why National Grid?

- ◆ Inclusive and diverse environment
- ◆ Work in a green environment
- ◆ Give back to the community
- ◆ Feel valued!

Minimum criteria for consideration:

- ◆ Candidate must have a Bachelors' Degree or Masters' Degree from a four-year accredited university/college
- ◆ Candidate must also have a 3.0 GPA or higher with experience in at least two of the following:
  - Leadership position in college (student government or club, athletics, etc.)
  - Leadership and/or volunteer experience within their community
  - Experienced a full- or part-time job while at college and acquired relevant work experience

All candidates must apply online at Monster.com to be considered for this position.

Graduate program positions may be located in New England (MA and RI), Downstate NY (Brooklyn) and Upstate NY (Syracuse, Albany and Buffalo).

Candidates must be able to provide an official college transcript and two letters of recommendation upon request.

