

Learn about National Grid's Graduate Development Program

Program benefits

- ◆ Real work experience in a global environment
- ◆ Intensive leadership training
- ◆ Developmental opportunities
- ◆ Networking events
- ◆ Career management
- ◆ 3 x 6 month rotations that offer specialist and broadened exposure

Why National Grid?

- ◆ Inclusive and diverse environment
- ◆ Opportunity to be a part of global leader
- ◆ Work in a green environment
- ◆ Give back to the community
- ◆ Feel valued!

Minimum criteria for consideration

Candidate must have a Bachelors Degree from an accredited 4-year university/college or Masters Degree with minimal work experience. Candidate must also have a 3.3 GPA or higher with experience in at least two of the following:

- ◆ Leadership position in college (student government or club, athletics, etc.)
- ◆ Leadership position within their community
- ◆ Maintained a part-time job while in college

All candidates must apply online at Monster © to be considered for this position. Graduate program positions will be located in New England and New York. Candidates must be able to provide an official college transcript upon request.

nationalgrid

The power of action.™