

Whenever You Need It, We Can Help

We recognize that coming together to support one another is so important right now. We're committed to making a positive difference for you and the communities we serve, throughout this crisis and every day.

We are here to help find a solution right for you.

- If you are struggling to pay your bill, we offer flexible plans and arrangements for past due balances, along with a range of payment options.
- You could be eligible for a discount on your monthly energy bills if you receive a qualifying benefit based on your household income and household size. Visit ngrid.com/discount.
- You may also qualify for emergency home energy assistance grants, through your local Community Action Partnership agency or a one-time grant through the Rhode Island Good Neighbor Energy Fund.
- To speak with one of our representatives about options available to you, please contact us at 1-800-322-3223 for electric accounts or at 1-800-870-1664 for gas accounts.
- For business customers, helpful information, including details on the CARES Act, is also available at ngrid.com/businesshelp.

Ways to Use Less and Save More

If you're using more energy at home now, we can help find you ways to save at ngrid.com/save.

Energy savings tips for businesses are also available on the Business version of our web site.

Option to Help Others in Need

If you would like to help someone in your life by paying all or a portion of their National Grid bill, please contact us. We'll need the following information:

- their name
- service address
- amount you wish to pay
- their phone number (helps ensure payment is applied accurately)

You can choose to notify the recipient of your gift or stay anonymous if you prefer. The payment amount will be reflected in their next bill.

Doing Our Part

As part of our COVID-19 response, with more than $500,000 in donations, we continue to expand our community support, helping over 40 organizations across New York, Massachusetts and Rhode Island, including United Way of Rhode Island.

In your area, you can connect to essential service agencies and resources by calling 211.

For more local resources and updates, please see Rhode Island's COVID-19 response website.

For business customers, helpful information, including details on the CARES Act, is also available at ngrid.com/businesshelp.

Our thoughts are with impacted families and individuals, as we wish you and yours continued health and safety. We're in this together.

Thank you.

How We're Helping

To support everyone affected during this crisis, we have temporarily:

- Suspended service shut-offs for nonpayment
- Taken actions to protect you and our employees in the way we work.

Protect Yourself from Scammers

Unfortunately, scams related to the COVID-19 outbreak are on the rise. Remember: National Grid never demands payment through the use of a prepaid debit card and never accepts payments through these cards. Learn more here.
