

Smart Energy Solutions

Participating in Peak Time Rewards is rewarding.

Get rewarded for lower or shifting your energy use.

With Peak Time Rewards, you could earn eGift Cards just for changing your energy use pattern on Conversation Days.

What is a Conversation Day?

This is time when temperatures are expected to be over 90 degrees for several days and energy use is at its peak. We will contact customers to let them know about an upcoming Conversation Day.

An average customer can expect to earn over $20 per year!

Simply reduce energy use during Conversation Days to earn points that can be redeemed for eGift Cards for a variety of charities and online retailers, including:

- Target
- Starbucks
- Home Depot
- And, many more!

Enrolling in Peak Time Rewards only takes a few minutes.
